The Body Ecstatic & Sexual Healing

Taught by Margot Anand & Laurent Lacoste

The purpose of this cycle is to lead us to discover and release physical tensions, emotional and psychological blocks that prevent us from loving our body and living our sensuality and pleasure. We will begin by freeing the first two chakras in order to support the energy flow freely throughout the body. The more our body releases tensions accumulated during our lives, the more it can relax and be a source of pleasure.

In this cycle, you will:

- Celebrate our energy with freshness and innocence and become aware that the source of pleasure lies primarily within ourselves
- Learn to love and accept our body, awaken our inner lover
- Explore the art of tantric massage and gentle and respectful touch
- Learn the healing rituals of the Yoni and the Vajra - the sexual organs of women and men
- Enjoy and celebrate sacred rituals that honor and expand male and female energies
- Learn the art of preparing a tantric temple and the ritual of "sacred space"
- Discover the 3 Keys to sexual ecstasy: breath, movement and sound.

Love & Orgasm

Taught by Laurence Heitzmann and Laurent Lacoste

In this cycle we will cover one of the pearls of SkyDancing Tantra: The "Multi Orgasmic Response: MORE". Following the healing of the pelvic floor in the previous cycle, the MORE session will help the energy to flow through the inner flute, fully and consciously opening ourselves to pleasure and sexual energy.

SkyDancing Tantra teaches the celebration of love and life. The other is a mirror and a door to our own evolution. In the context of relating with the other, we deepen the art of feeling and finding the right distance that allows for the truest connection.

You will learn to:

- Open your heart to the other through genuine and profound communication, creating an environment of trust
- Discover and harmonize your inner woman and inner man (Yin and Yang)
- Develop your awareness of the inner flute and the seven charkas
- Relax in high states of arousal, opening your body to the possibility of a full body orgasm and of expanded levels of orgasmic pleasure
- Explore ways of channeling sexual energy to the heart and creating a loving circle of energy with your partner.

From Sexual Passion to Spiritual Ecstasy

Taught by Laurence Heitzmann and Laurent Lacoste

When the vital energy is awakened and flows freely, it is possible to melt into the silence of meditation. The energy of the first chakra is the energy of fire, which when released, will feed all other chakras and open the path to spiritual transformation.

The “Wave of Bliss” is an advanced practice of SkyDancing Tantra that teaches how, during the union of Shiva and Shakti in the Yabyum position, the ascension and the refinement of the sexual energy can be used for the expansion of consciousness. The wave of Bliss is the union of consciousness and energy.

In this cycle you will:

- Experience the ascending “wave of bliss”
- Channel the vital energy through the chakras to open the inner flute
- Learn to contain energy, opening to the expansion of consciousness
- Learn to relax in meditation with a partner, experiencing a fusion of energies
- Discover the healing power of the Vajrasattva mantra which is also called the «100-Syllable Mantra» in the Tibetan tantric tradition.

Maturity & Relationship

Taught by Laurence Heitzmann & Fernando Manrique

Maturity is the ability to stay in the flow of life, being able to cope with the unknown in the “here and now”. The root of our relational, sexual and spiritual maturity lays in the conscious acceptance of whatever life offers, relating to it with our inner strength in order to keep growing. As we become more familiar with our inner self, we transform, expand and gain confidence in ourselves and the present.

In this cycle you will discover and expand this capacity in order to dive deeper into your life flow!

Applying different Tantric meditations and other practices, we will invite you to fully experience the present moment. We will experiment leaving our usual comfort zone, letting go of old habits, judgments and attachments. We will dare to explore new and unexpected “waters” within ourselves and relating to others. We will also invite you to explore the notions of depth and emptiness - jewels from which the expansion of our body, heart and spirit can arise.

During this cycle, we will:

- Practice to approach life from a whole body experience
- Discover, welcome and develop areas of light and inner strength
- Become aware of, accept and transform our “shadows”
- Dare to follow our passion ...a little, a lot, or fully...!

CYCLE 5

Freedom in the form: Power of Being and the Roots of Orgasm

Led by Laurence Heitzmann and Laurent Lacoste

During this cycle we will strengthen and deepen what was addressed in the previous cycles, by bringing in additional tools. We will propose an evolutionary journey that includes a number of themes centered around pleasure, its limits and its transcendence through advanced body-psychotherapy practices.

We will journey together to bring awareness to the obstacles and limitations that settle in our ego and mind, preventing us from living our full potential and weakening our capacity for ecstasy and for joyful living. New practices will allow us to deeply explore in a relaxed environment the fundamental concept of freedom in the form, and how an individual, by going to the heart of one's feelings, can be released from the chains of one's conditionings to fully live one's pleasure.

You will discover how to:

- Create a new field of consciousness that invites our creative potential
- Get as close as possible to our feelings in order to know and understand our limitations
- Create the space of safety from which it is possible to learn by playing and flirting with these limitations
- Understand the limiting mechanisms of our beliefs and deprogram them in order to access our individual freedom
- Practice the exercises of pelvic laughter

Awaken your Light Body

Taught by Margot Anand and Pascal Savatier

When you awaken your light body it feels as if your "inner sun" is rising within. Your energy vibrates with a finer frequency, and becomes bright. It is the initiation into Bliss. When your internal light shines, you are transformed. Your trust in yourself grows, and your creative ability, your aliveness your clarity expand. As your inner radiance expands, your spirit shines and you become more attractive.

In this cycle, we explore how to awaken your inner radiance, how to channel it down from the crown to the root of your being.

Then we explore the complete cycle in Riding the Wave of Bliss, from the root of your being (the first chakra) to the crown (the seventh charka). You become the connection between heaven and earth. In this process, the polarities of Yin and Yang progressively dissolve and open your being to Oneness.

During this cycle, we develop:

- The mystical dimension of SkyDancing Tantra and of Tantric Sexuality
- The art of "Riding the Tiger ": thus enlivening each of our chakras
- The practice of the "Descending Wave"
- The power of Sacred Geometry in the art of balancing energies in the chakras
- Mantras which empower powerful healing rituals.
